REPORT OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

To the Citizens of Merrimack County:

In accordance with the Public Statutes of the State of New Hampshire, the Commissioners of Merrimack County herewith present the annual report of the County Commissioners, Treasurer, Superintendent of Farm and House of Correction, Clerk of the Superior Court, Sheriff, Jailor, Solicitor, Farm Physician, Chaplain and Auditors for the year ending December 31, 1920.

COUNTY FARM.

The County institution at North Boscawen continues in charge of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lorden as Superintendent and Matron. We feel that much credit should be given them for the faithful, efficient service which has made conditions here so highly satisfactory to all. For the detailed statistics of the Farm, we would call your attention to the report of the Superintendent.

COUNTY POOR AWAY FROM FARM.

The number of people cared for under this head has been somewhat less than in some years past, but owing to the high living cost which has prevailed, it has not been possible to reduce the net expense very materially. The total expense for the year was $32,631.95, which is $483.05 less than in 1919.

JAIL.

In our last report we expressed the hope that the next legislature would take some action in regard to improving the present jail system in New Hampshire. We again express the same desire. The Merrimack County Jail is under the efficient charge of High Sheriff Geo. A. Wooster, who, we believe, is doing all that can be done under the present law, for the best interest of the County and those committed it to his care.

FINANCES OF THE COUNTY.

The total receipts for the year as shown by the Treasurer's report were $187,713.49. Total expenditures, $184,770.71, leaving a cash balance on hand of $2,942.78. Merrimack County has no outstanding bonds or notes.

THE VALUATION OF THE COUNTY.

Property is as follows:

Alms house, Court house and Jail	$214,947.00
Personal property at Farm	32,461.03
Personal property at Court house	5,500.00
Personal property at Jail	425.00

In conclusion, we take the opportunity to extend our gratitude and appreciation to all officers and citizens of the County for their loyal support and hearty co-operation, so often manifested.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR H. BRITTON,
JOHN G. MCQUILKIN,
JAMES L. COLBY,

Commissioners of Merrimack County.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

In compliance with the general laws the following record of receipts and expenditures of Merrimack County for the year ending December 31, 1920, is respectfully submitted:

No outstanding bonds or notes

We have examined the foregoing account of Warren Abbott, Treasurer of Merrimack County, State of New Hampshire, and find the same correctly cast and properly vouched.

ARTHUR H. BRITTON,
JOHN G. MCQUILKIN,
JAMES L. COLBY,
Commissioners of Merrimack County.

December 21, 1920.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

We hereby certify that we have audited the accounts of the county commissioners, county treasurer and superintendent of the county farm, from January 1, 1920 to January 1, 1921, and have found the same correctly cast and supported by proper vouchers. We believe that all purchases have been made at reasonable prices and have been used for county purposes.

W. J. AHERN,
ELWIN L. PAGE,
County Auditors.

To the Auditors:

We hereby certify that the floating indebtedness of the county on January 1, 1921, to the best of our knowledge and belief, does not exceed five hundred dollars, aside from the amount due cities and towns for the support of paupers away from the farm, for the support of soldiers and sailors, and for the salaries of the county officers for the last quarter.

ARTHUR H. BRITTON,
JOHN G. MCQUILKIN,
JAMES L. COLBY,
Commissioners of Merrimack County.

MERRIMACK, ss., February 4, 1921.

Personally appeared Arthur H. Britton, James L. Colby and John G. McQuilkin, and made oath to the above statement.

REPORT OF THE CHAPLAIN

Recently there was published and "made in Concord," a very extraordinary book, entitled "The Story of Opal, the Journal of an Understanding Heart." It is the diary kept by a six years young child to whom the world was full of interesting folks, not only humans, but also birds, sheep, pigs, rats, mice, caterpillars, potatoes, and big fir trees and so forth. For her growing family of animal friends, Opal provides a hospital and a chapel where she holds with them religious services and the dog barks and the pig grunts the "amens." Animals become friends or at least more like friends when they are treated as such. Every chapel and church should be maintained in this spirit, just to evolve the best in every soul. Your chaplain endeavors to follow this gleam, at how great a distance, he is sadly aware. In all its departments, this institution has as its ideal the dream of Opal's chapel. The interests of all our people are sought, not only of those who have found here a "new home," and those who are here for repairs, but also the staff of workers in the house, the men in the barn, and the producers in the field. The animals seem to enjoy their home, from the retired horse, Dolly, to the clean pigs in their cheerful pens. We are learning to look for religion where Jesus located it, in the common-places of our variegated life.

At our "new home" Christmas is much more than the "day" in Bret Harte's poem; it is a religion, a time for peace in the heart, joy looks in the eyes, and among us all good will. This spirit of Christmas became incarnate in the beautiful decorations by our artists in tinsel and paper, Mr. and Mrs. Haggerty, in the fine turkey dinner provided for all, and in the fruitful spruce trees from which our worthy Commissioners plucked the gifts.

sent by Santa Claus at the hands of many friends, including the W. C. T. U. of Franklin, the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Baptist church in Penacook, and the ladies of Boscawen. And Mrs. Calley was here: she had to be! What would Christmas be in this place without her! She introduced Miss Tandy of Franklin, who took charge of the entertainment consisting of vocal solos and recitations by herself and Miss Hanson of Franklin, with instrumental selections by Mr. and Mrs. Luther Emerson and Mrs. White of Hill.

The chapel services have been maintained as usual. Miss Colby and Miss Morgan have continued to furnish the music which all have much enjoyed. The chaplain has given one travel lecture on a week-day evening, illustrated by stereopticon views. We would be very much pleased to welcome friends of the "home" to the regular chapel services at three o'clock in the afternoons of the first and third Sundays of the month.

M. J. ALLEN.

GEORGE M. FLETCHER,
Clerk of Superior Court, Merrimack County.

REPORT OF COUNTY SOLICITOR.

For the year 1920.

To the Commissioners of the County of Merrimack.

I respectfully submit this report for the year ending December 31, 1920.

At the April term of the Superior Court, the Grand Jury found twelve indictments as follows:

Adultery	4
Attempted rape	1
Breaking and entering	2
False Pretenses	2
Murder	1
Perjury	2

Of these respondents two were sentenced to jail, four paid fines, and in four other cases sentences were suspended. By far the most important case of the term was the trial in connection with the murder of Maurice F. Otterson and in this, as also in one of the perjury cases, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal.

At the October term of the Superior Court the Grand Jury found fourteen indictments against eleven respondents as follows:

Adultery	1
Breaking and entering	6
Larceny	4
Manslaughter	3

Of these respondents two were sentenced to jail, four the House of Correction and in four cases sentence was suspended. The manslaughter case, which grew out of an automobile accident, was continued until the April term, 1921, because of illness of the respondent.

The most serious problem which has been faced during the past year has been that of automobile accidents. These have occurred throughout the County but an unusually large number have taken place in the City of Concord. All these have been carefully investigated by the holding of inquests and in all but two it seemed clear that there was no criminal responsibility resting upon any of the parties who remained alive. Two cases were presented to the Grand Jury at the October term, and three indictments were returned against a single respondent. It is very obvious that the great bulk of accidents of this type can be avoided by careful driving, and it is proposed strictly to enforce all automobile laws during the coming season in an effort to cut down the number of fatalities.

Another important matter has been the enforcement of the prohibition laws and it seems clear that on the whole the situation in this County is satisfactory. There are one or two bad spots where the liquor conditions are very demoralizing and where it has seemed particularly difficult to enforce the law. These, however, are the exception and it may safely be said that the traffic in intoxicating liquor has been reduced to a very low point.

I am very happy to acknowledge the very courteous assistance which has been given me by all the officials throughout the County with whom I have come in contact.

HERBERT W. RAINIE,
County Solicitor,

In conclusion, gentlemen, allow me to take this opportunity to thank the voters of Merrimack County for my re-election in November last.
